Subject: NALP Quarterly Report - ABA GPSolo Liaison

I continue to be in contact with my colleagues at the ABA GPSolo Division. I attended their meeting in Charleston (as reported earlier). They have an upcoming meeting in Las Vegas that I will not be attending; however, I did assist their leaders with a connection to UNLV Law for a small firm program when GPSolo meets later this winter. Their next meeting will be in New York City in May 2019 and I plan to attend because of its proximity to Philadelphia and cost. In the meantime, GPSolo offers free membership to law students and I posted this information on NALP Connect on January 14, 2019 to remind law school members about these opportunities. I will endeavor to make these types of outreach every quarter.
