Statement of Interest

I am honored to submit my candidacy for the Nominating Committee. Throughout my career, I have demonstrated a commitment to fostering collaborative leadership, identifying talent, and upholding the highest standards of fairness and inclusion. I am deeply committed to ensuring a transparent and equitable nomination process that reflects the diversity and values of NALP. My past experiences have equipped me with the insight needed to identify and help slate leaders who will contribute meaningfully to the growth and direction of our organization.

I understand the time commitment and am fully prepared to attend the required training and meetings to fulfill the duties of this role. I look forward to the opportunity to support the ongoing success of NALP through this essential committee.

Biographical Sketch

My name is Kendall Wade Lowery, and I have dedicated over 25 years to the field of legal recruiting, talent development, and attorney retention. Currently, I serve as the Senior Director of Firmwide Attorney Recruiting at Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, where I oversee global hiring initiatives, collaborate with executive leadership to drive strategic growth, and work closely with teams to ensure seamless integration of new talent into the firm.

Throughout my career, I have had the privilege of holding leadership roles at several renowned law firms, including Andrews Kurth LLP (now Hunton Andrews Kurth LLP) as Director of Firmwide Attorney Recruitment and Events and Patterson + Sheridan LLP as Chief Talent Officer. My background also includes experience with leading legal and executive search firms, which has given me a comprehensive understanding of identifying, attracting, and retaining top-tier talent.

I earned my Bachelor's degree in Speech Communications from Texas A&M University, and I have been actively involved in professional organizations such as NALP, where I previously served on the Nominating Committee, and the Houston Association of Legal Recruitment Administrators, where I served as President. Beyond my professional life, I enjoy traveling with my 12 year old twins and volunteering in my community.

I am passionate about fostering diverse and inclusive environments, mentoring future leaders, and contributing to the ongoing success of the legal industry.
