

Olivia Sorbo

Candidate for Regional Representative

Olivia Sorbo is an Associate Recruiting Coordinator at Latham & Watkins, a global law firm renowned for its innovative legal solutions and collaborative service. In this role, Olivia is instrumental in facilitating the associate recruitment process for both the San Francisco and Silicon Valley offices.

Prior to joining Latham & Watkins this past summer, Olivia was a Human Resources Associate at a prominent real estate firm in New York, Mack Real Estate Group. Over a span of 4.5 years, Olivia was responsible for a wide range of HR functions, including performance management, talent acquisition, benefits administration and employee engagement. Olivia's experience in the fast-paced real estate sector equipped her with a deep understanding of strategic recruitment and employee engagement, skills she now brings to the legal industry.

Olivia holds a dual degree in Psychology and Exercise Science from Elon University. Olivia also earned her Professional in Human Resources certification from HRCI in 2023 and held the role of Social Chair for the National Alliance on Mental Illness' New York Young Professionals chapter in 2023-2024.

Having moved to the Bay Area this past summer and joined the world of legal recruiting six months ago, Olivia is enthusiastic about the opportunity to serve as the Regional Representative for NALP to get more involved in the community. Olivia is attracted to the Regional Representative role in particular as she enjoys being the go-to for others to ask questions and takes pleasure in integrating new members into an organization.